

STORY WRITING CHALLENGE

WRITE A STORY THAT WE CAN TURN INTO A SCRIPT

OPEN
25 OCT 2020

SUBJECT
SHAME

CLOSE
20 DEC 2020

FIND OUT MORE

info@icsa.net.au & info@ntc.org.au
www.icsa.net.au & www.nautanki.org.au

STORY WRITING CHALLENGE

Are you someone who has a passion for writing?
Do you think you have what it takes to write a compelling story?

A story that can one day become a play, production, movie, a chapter in a book or sketch series

The Indian (Sub-Cont) Crisis & Support Agency (ICSA) & the Nautanki Theatre Company (NTC), supported by Blacktown City Council and Blacktown Arts present Shame a story writing challenge. We invite original, previously unpublished works.

You can be part of the production & see your story come to life

Criteria

- Authenticity The story must be an original works by the author.
Theme The story must be around the subject of shame.
Location Based in and around Blacktown, NSW Australia
Words Minimum 500 words to a Maximum 1500 words

Timeline

Open 25 Oct 2020
Close 20 Dec 2020

Application Process

Application Pack: Guidelines and instructions are available for download at via www.icsa.net.au & www.nautanki.org.au.

Entries & Enquiries: to be submitted via story@icsa.net.au

Assessment Process

- Stage 1: The projects first assessed electronically for technical requirements (eg word count).
Stage 2: The projects will be evaluated and ranked final five by an assessment panel against set criteria.
Finalist: The finalists will be invited to pitch (read) their story to a panel of writing experts.

Entries will be judged by an eminent panel of experts from the writing, publishing, theatre and community support services

Winner and highly commended entries to be announced
25th January 2021

PROJECT PARTNERS

SUPPORTED BY

Blacktown Arts

— THIS IS HOW WE MAKE ART —

